Practise what you preach by carpooling, PM advises ministers

New Delhi: "Shouldn't we opt for car pooling when we are starting from the same place and heading to a common destination?" PM Narendra Modi is learnt to have posed this question to his ministers on Wednesday as he doubled down on his message to save fuel, reports Dipak Dash.

TOI has learned that his remarks came during a meeting of the Union Cabinet, for which many of the ministers arrived in separate cars.

Recently, Modi had asked for his security convoy to be trimmed and suggested ministers reduce their fleet of vehicles, in view of govt appealing to citizens to switch to public transport to reduce consumption of petrol and diesel.

"The PM's message was clear — ministers must practise what they preach," said a person aware of the discussion, even as most ministers have pruned the number of vehicles that escort their cars.

Sources said the PM also asked ministers to step up engagement with people and spend more time among citizens, while lauding telecom minister Jyotiraditya Scindia's recent engagements with the masses.

During his recent visit to Sikkim, Scindia surprised locals with his proficiency in the Nepali language.

The PM's observation had its impact on Wednesday itself when some ministers of state travelled in one car to Kartavya Bhawan-3 to attend the PM-chaired Pragati meeting virtually.

Soon after the PM's appeal to use public transport, BJP ministers across states had either cut their vehicle fleet or opted for bus or metros. But many of them have struggled to adhere to it — recently a deputy CM of a BJP-governed state was reported to have called for a seven-seater vehicle in order to return to the state capital.

Failing to get Rahul's ear, DKS sought Priyanka aid to be CM

Bengaluru: D K Shivakumar's push to succeed Siddaramaiah gathered momentum after Priyanka Gandhi Vadra intervened, sources said.

Shivakumar, despite multiple visits to the national capital in recent months, struggled to get Rahul Gandhi's ear on the reported arrangement under which he was expected to take over as CM midway through govt's tenure, sources said.

The deputy CM then reached out to Priyanka, who persuaded both Rahul and Congress Parliamentary Party chairperson Sonia Gandhi to consider his claim to the chief ministership.

Senior Congress MLA and administrative reforms commission chairperson RV Deshpande said Siddaramaiah had conveyed his decision to colleagues, although several ministers and legislators urged him not to resign.

While Rahul is said to have offered Siddaramaiah a Rajya Sabha berth and a larger national role in the party, the 77-year-old isn't keen to shift to Delhi politics, sources said.

Sources said before submitting his resignation, Siddaramaiah would address a presser: Shivakumar, who returned to Bengaluru on Wednesday from Delhi, will be part of the breakfast meeting, they said.

The transition plan gathered pace after marathon discussions in Delhi involving Rahul, Congress national president Mallikarjun Kharge and Siddaramaiah.

The CM evaded questions about the developments. "I will speak on everything tomorrow," Siddaramaiah said after paying floral tribute to Jawaharlal Nehru at Vidhana Soudha on the former PM's death anniversary.

State home minister G Parameshwara and PWD minister Satish Jarkiholi said there would be clarity after an official announcement.

AICC's Karnataka minder, Randeep Singh Surjewala, arrived in Bengaluru in the evening to oversee the transition. But Surjewala insisted Congress hadn't called a legislature party meeting yet and "no other decision has been taken".

As someone with decades of grassroots political influence, Siddaramaiah continues to enjoy support among Kurubas, Muslims, Dalits and several backward communities, making him one of Congress's main social-coalition builders. Party brass privately fear his exit could trigger disappointment among these communities ahead of the 2028 assembly elections.

"If Rahul removes Siddaramaiah, the only OBC CM in Congress, it will prove that he is not for OBCs," said former CM and BJP MP Basavaraj Bommai.

As a softener, Congress is considering PWD minister Satish Jarkiholi, an ST representative and Siddaramaiah confidant, for the Karnataka PCC president's post. The party brass is mulling having "multiple" deputy CMs. Sources said the names being discussed for the proposed posts include Yathindra Siddaramaiah (Kuruba community), Priyank Kharge (Dalit), either U T Khader or B Z Zameer Ahmed Khan (Muslim), and M B Patil or Eshwar Khadre (Lingayat).

Before likely exit, Sidda clears caste survey

The Karnataka State Commission for Backward Classes submitted its long-delayed socio-economic and educational survey report, popularly known as the caste survey, to govt after a nudge from CM Siddaramaiah, reports Santosh Kumar B. Panel chairman K Madhusudhan and backward classes welfare minister Shivaraj Tangadagi, handed the report, comprising more than 300 pages, in two sealed envelopes to Siddaramaiah on Wednesday. Tangadagi said govt had accepted the report and would take a decision on the implementation at the next cabinet meeting.

The move is being seen as a major message from Siddaramaiah ahead of the expected regime change in Karnataka. He had faced flak for not pushing the survey despite crores being spent on the exercise across his two tenures as CM, with critics alleging that govt avoided acting on the first report fearing a backlash from Lingayats and Vokkaligas, politically dominant communities. With the revised report now formally submitted, the onus shifts to the next CM and his cabinet, which will have to decide on implementing its recommendations.

TMC MLA on run after 'threats to BJP workers' arrested in Puri

Debabrata Mohapatra, Monotosh Chakraborty & Dwaipayan Ghosh | TNN

Bhubaneswar/Kolkata: Bengal's special task force (STF) arrested Trinamool Congress's Bishnupur MLA and former minister, Dilip Mondal, at a hotel in Puri on Wednesday in connection with FIRs over a video showed him threatening BJP workers at a victory rally in South 24 Parganas district's Baruipur on May 11.

In his speech, which was streamed live on Facebook, Mondal was purportedly heard saying: "We have shown a lot of restraint. We kept peace for 15 years. But this won't happen again."

On May 14, police raided Mondal's penthouse in South 24 Parganas' Pailan but he scaled the boundary wall and fled. He had been evading arrest for the past 13 days. His son, Arghya, and five others were arrested on May 18.

Acting on a tip-off from one of Mondal's aides, a 30-member team from Bengal STF and Puri police surrounded Hotel Lily. Officers in plainclothes asked about Mondal at the reception. Once his identity was confirmed, Mondal was asked to come to the lobby, where police took him into custody.

"He had checked in using his associate's name. The moment he came down to complete checkout formalities; he was taken into custody. There was no resistance. He had already booked another hotel near the beach for Wednesday," a Puri police officer said.
