Govt to keep pot boiling for Janakeeya Hotels

Revamp planned amid shutdown of units due to debt | Crisis after rice distribution at subsidised rate was stopped

GOPIKA VARRIER @Kochi

AMID growing concerns over the survival of Janakeeya Hotels, with more units in line to be shut, the state government is considering a comprehensive revamp of the Kudumbashree-run eateries even while ensuring that affordable food continues to be available to people from all sections of society.

Janakeeya Hotels started off as community kitchens during the Covid lockdown. Subsequently, they were scaled up to low-cost Janakeeya Hotels and five-member Kudumbashree groups entrusted with the responsibility of running them. Soon, ₹20-meals served at the outlets became popular among the public.

At a time when the rise in the prices of vegetables, fuel, and other commodities is threatening their very existence, the UDF-led Keralam government is planning to restructure Janakeeya Hotels.

Initially, for every ₹20-meal served at a Janakeeya hotel, the state government gave a subsidy grant of ₹10, in addition to the subsidised rice. While the grant of ₹10 per meals was stopped in 2023, an audit objection has led to the stoppage of rice distribution at a subsidised rate. And crisis hit Janakeeya Hotels, forcing some to even shut operations, facing huge debts.

"We began the Janakeeya Hotel as a community kitchen in 2020. But we couldn't turn it into a profitable venture as subsidy grants didn't arrive in a timely manner," said Seena, who now runs a hotel in Paravur.

"The state government had promised a financial assistance of ₹10 per meal, but that often took six months to be approved. As other members of the group dropped out, I decided to shut the Janakeeya hotel," she said.

At the same time, a Janakeeya hotel operator in Pathanamthitta, Sreedevi, remains hopeful. "Hotels located in busy localities have found their own ways to be profitable, not through the low-cost meals but by serving other food items. However, it will be helpful if we get better assistance, especially as vegetable prices and allied expenses have been rising," she said.

According to Civil Supplies Minister Anoop Jacob, the department could earlier distribute tide-over rice to Janakeeya Hotels but audit objection and strict regulation by the Union government have now stalled the scheme. "We will have to look for other ways as diverting rice as tide-over (support mechanism) will not be possible," Anoop said.

Local Self-Government Minister K M Shaji said the department has taken the matter seriously and held discussions in the presence of the Chief Minister. "The Kudumbashree director has been entrusted with the task of preparing a project for the revamp of Janakeeya Hotels in the state. We will try to enhance the eateries with better facilities, ensuring a revenue for the Kudumbashree groups who run it," Shaji said.

T'gana HC sets aside CAT order quashing BrahMos boss pick

JAVARIA RANA @ New Delhi

THE Telangana High Court on Tuesday set aside a Central Administrative Tribunal (CAT) order that had quashed the appointment of DRDO scientist Jaiteerth R Joshi as Director General of BrahMos Aerospace, ending the immediate legal challenge to the leadership of the Indo-Russian missile joint venture.

Dr Jaiteerth R Joshi

The high court had in January suspended the operative portion of the CAT order, allowing Joshi to remain in the post while the challenge was heard.

A division bench on Tuesday allowed petitions filed by the Union government and Joshi against the December order of the CAT's Hyderabad bench, which had found "manifest arbitrariness" in the selection process, struck down his appointment, directed the authorities to reconsider the candidature of senior DRDO scientist Sivasubramaniam Nambi Naidu and ordered an interim arrangement to head BrahMos that excluded Joshi.

Joshi was appointed Director General of BrahMos Aerospace in November 2024 and took charge on December 1.

Naidu, a Distinguished Scientist with the Defence Research and Development Organisation (DRDO), subsequently challenged the appointment, arguing that he had been superseded despite being the senior-most eligible candidate.

The dispute centred on the weight to be given to seniority and scientific grade in selecting the head of a strategic defence joint venture, and the extent of discretion available to the competent authority to select a candidate on the basis of overall suitability.

This newspaper had reported the CAT order against Joshi issued on on December 29.

Concerns mount over preparedness for Mandala season

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Pathanamthitta

WITH the Mandala-Makaravilakku season fast approaching, concerns are mounting over the preparedness at Sabarimala, with various Hindu organisations demanding that the state government and the Travancore Devaswom Board expedite arrangements for pilgrims.

The organisations have raised concerns over the availability of prasadam, drinking water, sanitation, annadanam, and other basic facilities, amid the continuing controversy over the shortage of aravana and the differences between the devaswom administration and the government.

Hindu Aikya Vedi state vice-president K Haridas criticised Devaswom Minister K Muraleedharan's suggestion that the upcoming pilgrimage season could be entrusted to a special committee, saying such a move raised questions about the statutory powers of the Devaswom Board.

"If there are differences with the Devaswom Board president, the government should ask him to resign" Haridas told TNIE. "We do not want Sabarimala to become a protest venue. But if this negligence continues, we will be forced to launch a protest," he said.

Put Centre in charge of Sabarimala devpt: BJP

Pathanamthitta: BJP state general secretary Anoop Antony on Tuesday alleged the UDF government is showing gross negligence towards Sabarimala. "If the state government cannot handle the development and administration of Sabarimala, it should hand over the responsibility to the Centre," he told the media.

Arrears for persons with disabilities released

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @T'Puram

HUNDREDS of persons with disabilities across the state are set to receive long-pending financial assistance after the state government released ₹1.30 crore towards pending dues under various individual beneficiary schemes of the social justice department. The amount will be distributed to eligible beneficiaries through the respective district social justice offices. Social Justice Minister V E Abdul Gafoor has directed officials to ensure that the funds are disbursed urgently in accordance with the scheme guidelines.

The pending payments relate to schemes including Vidyakiranam, Pariraksha, and Swashraya which are aimed at supporting persons with disabilities and improving their living conditions, and social inclusion.
