Zelenskyy seeks war support as Ukraine, Russia continue fight

KYIV

RUSSIAN missiles and drones struck at least four Ukrainian regions overnight, killing five people, officials said Tuesday. Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy said his country's forces had damaged two more Russian oil refineries in their latest long-range strikes.

The continuing exchange of aerial attacks, even as front-line positions remain largely unchanged, provided the backdrop for Zelenskyy's visit to the United States.

Donald Trump has called on Zelenskyy to halt strikes on Russian oil refineries and other infrastructure used to produce and distribute diesel, saying the attacks are contributing to global shortages and higher prices. The supply crunch has also been aggravated by reduced oil shipments through the Strait of Hormuz following the outbreak of the Iran war.

Kyiv began targeting Russian refineries after Moscow repeatedly attacked Ukraine's power grid. Zelenskyy has offered to halt Ukraine's strikes if Russia ends its attacks on energy infrastructure. Zelenskyy was scheduled to meet Trump and other world leaders at the UN General Assembly in New York. He is seeking their help to end Russia's more than 4½-year-old full-scale invasion.

Russia's President Vladimir Putin is not due to attend the annual event. The war, which Western officials say has killed more than 500,000 Russian troops, has had global repercussions. Western analysts estimate that Ukraine has recorded more than 500,000 military casualties, including up to 140,000 deaths.

Meanwhile, French President Emmanuel Macron said on Tuesday that France would provide Ukraine with additional radar systems to help protect its power grid. Macron said in a social media post that he had discussed with Trump a possible truce between Moscow and Kyiv that would halt strikes on energy infrastructure, as well as a "moratorium" on attacks in the Black Sea. AP

SL court convicts 15 over 2019 bombings

COLOMBO

A Sri Lankan court convicted 15 men on Tuesday over their involvement in the 2019 Easter Sunday bombings, which killed more than 260 people and wounded about 500.

The April 21 attacks targeted three churches and three hotels across the island nation during Easter services and celebrations. The bombings, which were inspired by the Islamic State group, were among the deadliest attacks in Sri Lanka's history. They killed 42 foreigners and devastated communities across the country.

A three-judge High Court panel delivered the verdict amid tight security, with hundreds of police officers deployed around the courthouse.

Authorities filed 23,270 charges in 2021 against 24 suspects accused of planning or inspiring the attacks. The charges included murder, conspiracy to commit terrorism, and firearms and explosives offenses under the Prevention of Terrorism Act.

None of those believed to have directly participated in the attacks are alive.Two Sri Lanka-based Islamic militant groups were accused of carrying out the bombings. Sri Lanka's Catholic Church has claimed, without providing evidence, that those identified so far as perpetrators are not the masterminds behind the bombings, and that there was a bigger conspiracy behind the attacks. AP

Brazil president attacks UN as leaders push back on wars

Lula says UN lost credibility, urges to recover capacity for dialogue, mediation

UNITED NATIONS

BRAZILIAN President Luiz Inacio Lula da Silva on Tuesday urged world leaders to take stronger action to address intensifying conflicts, saying the UN's credibility had "never been lower" as he addressed the General Assembly ahead of US President Donald Trump.

"The UN is failing in one of its highest missions: to save humanity from the scourge of war," Lula said, calling for the organisation to recover its capacity for dialogue and mediation. He also called for reform of the UN Security Council, saying the world was witnessing a new arms race.

Lula, whose remarks came weeks before Brazil's elections, also warned against foreign interference in his country's affairs. "Brazilian democracy belongs to Brazilians. Brazil will continue to be a sovereign country," he said.

"Nobody will turn us away from this path." Meanwhile, Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan meanwhile called for the immediate reconstruction of Gaza and urged world leaders to exert greater pressure on Israel. "We must begin the reconstruction of Gaza immediately," Erdogan said, while Jordan's King Abdullah II warned that Israel's "expansionist appetite" had become a regional threat. "This Israeli government's expansionist appetite is now a regional threat," Abdullah said, pointing to Israel's actions in Gaza, the occupied West Bank and southern Syria. Cuban Foreign Minister Bruno Rodriguez also hit back at Trump after the US president told the UN that Cuba "will fall". Cuban delegates left the General Assembly hall during Donald Trump's speech.

"The US government is incapable of accepting that Cuba is and has the right to be a full sovereign and independent country," Rodriguez said on X, adding that "none of the falsehoods by the Donald Trump at the UN can deny that fact." Erdogan also condemned attacks on commercial vessels in the Black Sea as "unacceptable", regardless of whether Russia or Ukraine was responsible, as Ankara pushes for a moratorium on such attacks. AFP/AP

US-Denmark-Greenland agreement signed

UNITED NATIONS: Donald Trump on Tuesday signed an agreement with Denmark and Greenland to strengthen Arctic and North Atlantic security, easing tensions over his calls for US control of the territory. The deal will bolster the US military presence while keeping Greenland under Danish sovereignty. Trump said the US would develop a large military presence, including two major bases. Greenland and Denmark said the agreement recognises their sovereignty and self-determination while strengthening security for the island, Denmark and the US.

UN chief calls for world built on interdependence

UNITED NATIONS

US President Donald Trump speaks during the 81st session of the UN General Assembly | AP

UN Secretary-General Antonio Guterres pleaded for "a world built on interdependence" as he made his final address on Tuesday to a yearly gathering of world leaders convening to face a formidable menu of challenges — from climate change and war to inequality and artificial intelligence.

The UN leader has long implored leaders not to give up on cooperation and shared decision-making in the face of accelerating global challenges and increasing great-powers competition. Tuesday's message at the UN General Assembly took on additional urgency because he leaves office at the end of this year.

"The fault lines in our world are widening," he said, citing raging wars, risingtemperatures and artificial intelligence, among other matters. Instead of letting the future continue to veer toward fragmentation, transactionalism and mistrust, he called for "a world built on interdependence – and sustained by a dense web of economic, political, social and technological connections."

His speech opened the main portion of the world's biggest diplomatic meeting of the year. Leaders from the UN's 193 member countries address each other and the international community and air their hopes, plans and grievances. Guterres also rebuked might-makes-right thinking, telling superpowers to recognise "that their power isn't so super." Recent years have made it clear that "military power alone cannot secure peace," he said. AP
