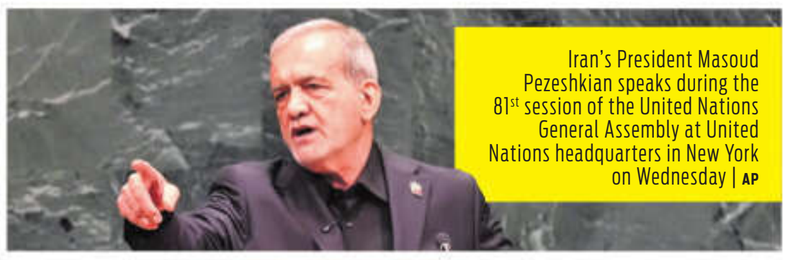
'We didn't bend knee' to US: Iran

Pezeshkian accuses the US for terrorism, says Iran rejects 'language of force'

UNITED NATIONS



Iran's President Masoud Pezeshkian speaks during the 81st session of the United Nations General Assembly at United Nations headquarters in New York on Wednesday | AP

IRAN's president said on Wednesday that his people have been "victims of terrorism" by the United States, delivering a rare wartime speech at UN General Assembly a day after President Donald Trump said he could "annihilate" the Islamic republic.

In a defiant speech, President Masoud Pezeshkian held up large photos of the late Supreme Leader Ali Khamenei and the more than 150 school Iranian children killed on the first days of the war.

"We have only defended ourselves. We are not terrorists," Pezeshkian said at the General Assembly. "Our innocent people have been the targets of cowardly attacks and aggressions imposed upon our country. And we defended ourselves with utmost strength. America and Israel attacked us."

He added of the United States: "Yes they did hit us, but we did not bend the knee." Toward the end of his speech, Pezeshkian called out Trump by name. "It must be understood by Mr Trump and those who seek to bully us that we are ready for dialogue and diplomacy and negotiations without accepting the language of force," he said.

WAR WATCH

He also said one thing that was measurably false: "We did not hit civilian populations." Mariners and migrant workers in the region have been among the civilians killed in Iran's attacks since the war began.

Arriving in New York under heavy security and scrutiny, Pezeshkian — who, within Iran's political landscape, is considered a moderate politician — addressed world leaders a day after Trump used the same stage to suggest he may "annihilate" the Islamic Republic if a deal isn't reached soon to end the nearly seven-month war. Hours later, Trump told reporters that his chief envoys, Steve Witkoff and Jared Kushner, met for about three hours with the Iranian officials on the sidelines of the annual gathering.

But he offered few details about how the discussions transpired or the substance of exchange. "It was a very good meeting," Trump said. The president later added that the Iranian officials were "not the highest level, but it's something." AP
