Modi wants B'desh PM Rahman's India visit to be 'memorable', envoy says

DHAKA

INDIAN Prime Minister Narendra Modi wants his Bangladeshi counterpart Tarique Rahman's proposed visit to India to be "memorable", Indian High Commissioner Dinesh Trivedi has said, stressing that closer ties between the two leaders would ultimately benefit people and businesses in both countries.

The envoy's remarks on Tuesday came as uncertainty looms over Rahman's proposed visit to New Delhi for the BRICS summit on September 12-13 amid fresh strains in bilateral ties over Dhaka's demand for the extradition of deposed prime minister Sheikh Hasina.

Speaking at a reception hosted by the Indian High Commission here on Tuesday for leading Bangladeshi business leaders and a visiting delegation of the Confederation of Indian Industry (CII), Trivedi said Modi had conveyed that the two leaders needed to meet and assured that Rahman would receive an appropriate welcome during his visit to India, news portal tbsnews.net reported.

"Prime Minister Modi just mentioned one thing. We need to meet. And you can tell them on my behalf that you have the prime minister of India's assurance that when the honourable prime minister of Bangladesh visits India, he will have such an honourable reception as he deserves," he said. Trivedi said Modi wanted Rahman's visit to be "memorable", underlining that stronger engagement between the two leaders would benefit both the neighbours. "Ultimately, the benefit will go to people and businesses. Business people all over the world have a big role to play in bridging this gap," he said.

Bangladesh to elect president tomorrow

Bangladesh will hold its presidential election on Thursday, with lawmakers choosing between BNP leader Mirza Fakhrul Islam Alamgir and opposition candidate Colonel (retd) Oli Ahmed. The election, the first in 35 years, follows Mohammed Shahabuddin's resignation.

Trivedi said the two countries should address past differences while looking ahead. "I am not telling that you forget the past, but keep the past and sort out the differences of the past. But move on. Don't get stagnant," he said. He said differences are natural between "vibrant democracies" and could be addressed through dialogue and engagement. "We deeply understand the concerns of brothers and sisters of Bangladesh. Definitely, there are concerns. But this is a partnership of equals," Trivedi said. He stressed that mutual trust would be essential for a durable relationship. PTI

UAE suspends trade with Iran after missile fire

DUBAI

THE United Arab Emirates suspended all trade with Iran on Wednesday after saying it had come under renewed fire from the country — a move that will further isolate the Islamic Republic, which is suffering under US sanctions and a blockade. Incoming ballistic missile fire triggered nationwide warnings on Tuesday night for residents to seek shelter, the first such alarm in weeks.

Iran's armed forces warned Gulf countries against assisting the US military, hours after the UAE announced it was severing economic ties with Tehran following new attacks on shipping.

Iranian armed forces chief of staff Ali Abdollahi, according to the Mehr news agency, warned "any assistance or facilitation provided to the aggressor US military amounts to participation in the US military operation". Early in the conflict, the UAE came under intense Iranian fire, halting most trade. Some maritime trade resumed in late June as hostilities eased, Iran's IRNA reported.

The UAE has been a key re-export hub for Iran, helping it absorb some of the shocks caused by sanctions, said Mohammad Farzanegan, a professor of West Asian n economics at Germany's University of Marburg."Iran therefore depends heavily on the UAE, not because the UAE itself produces one-third of Iran's imports, but because it serves as a major gateway for Iran to access third-country goods and commercial infrastructure." AP

Gaza strikes kills 10, cast doubt on ceasefire

DEIR AL-BALAH: Deadly Israeli airstrikes killed at least 10 people in Gaza on Wednesday. The strikes came two days after US negotiators reportedly urged Israel to reduce attacks. Israel said the strikes targeted Hamas commanders, while Gaza officials said one hit a police station, killing eight officers and a 13-year-old girl. Israeli troops also crossed the ceasefire line and detained a Hamas police colonel. Meanwhile, Israel's military on Wednesday announced its first criminal investigations into troop conduct in the war in Gaza, focusing on the killings of 5-year-old Hind Rajab and her family and of 15 Palestinian paramedics.
