T'NCM for action on Mekedatu proj

Vijay met PM Modi to discuss key Tamil Nadu issues and the Tamil invocation song controversy.

Press Trust Of India

NEW DELHI: Tamil Nadu Chief Minister C Joseph Vijay met Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Wednesday and discussed matters concerning the state, including the Meke-datu dam issue, fishermen arrests and the Tamil invocation song row.

In addition, Vijay also met Union Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman and handed over a memorandum to prioritise funding for ports, national highways, railway projects and industrial corridors that are crucial for Tamil Nadu's development.

This was Vijay's maiden official visit to the national capital after assuming office. His meeting with the PM and Sitharaman comes days after his party TVK secured an upset win in the April 23 Assembly polls, defeating Dravidian heavyweights DMK and AIADMK and formed its government with the support of allies including VCK.

The CM raised the issue of the Tamil Thai Vazhthu (invocation) song, as a controversy had broke out over the sequence of playing it third- after Vande Mataram and National anthem in the swearing-in ceremony of his government as well as the expan-

In a letter addressed to PM Modi, Vijay said, "at the outset, I wish to affirm that the Government and people of Tamil Nadu hold the National Anthem and the National Song in the highest esteem."

"Tamil Nadu has consistently upheld the dignity and decorum associated with all national symbols and remains deeply committed to the unity, integrity and constitutional values of India. I would also like to bring to your kind notice the long-established position of Tamil Thai Vazhthu in the public life of Tamil Nadu," he said in the letter.

For several decades, it has traditionally been rendered at the commencement of government, educational, cultural and public functions across Tamil Nadu and the practice has also been formally recognised by the Tamil

Nadu government, he said.

"Following the issuance of the above Ministry of Home Affairs order, Lok Bhavan has adopted the sequence of Vande Mataram, National Anthem and thereafter Tamil Thai Vazhthu. The placement of Tamil Thai Vazhthu subsequent to the National Anthem has led to widespread public concern and opposition from various sections of society in Tamil Nadu, as it departs from the long-standing and officially recognised practice followed in the State."

"It is submitted that Tamil Thai Vazhthu occupies a unique position in Tamil Nadu as the State invocation song symbolising the linguistic heritage, cultural identity and collective sentiments of the people of the state. Traditionally, it has always occupied

HIGHLIGHT

● TN respects National Anthem and National Song highly.

● He highlighted the long-standing role of Tamil Thai Vazhthu in TN's public life

the opening position in official functions as a mark of respect, pride and glory to the Tamil language and culture," the CM added.

This practice has been changed in certain functions after the communication from the Ministry of Home Affairs, he contended. The Home Ministry letter does not bar the singing of State Song at the beginning of the functions. "However it is observed that in recent functions held at Lok Bhavan, Tamil Thai Vazhthu was sung at the end."

"In this background, I request your kind intervention for issuance of a suitable clarification/modification to the Ministry of Home Affairs Order No.14/2/2025-Public, dated 28.01.2026, enabling State Invocation Songs, including Tamil Thai Vazhthu, to be sung at the commencement of Government functions.

Assam passes UCC Bill

GUWAHATI: The Assam Assembly on Wednesday passed the UCC Bill that seeks to put in place a common legal framework to govern marriage, divorce, succession and live-in relationships irrespective of religion, even as the opposition demanded that it be sent to a select committee.

With the passage of the proposed legislation, Assam became the third state, after Uttarakhand and Gujarat, to pass a Uniform Civil Code Bill.

Goa also has one common civil law, which continued from its erstwhile Portuguese colonial period. After a day-long discussion on the "The Uniform Civil Code, Assam, 2026 Bill", Speaker Ranjeet Kumar Dass asked Chief Minister Himanta Biswa Sarma to move it for passage.
