

SC dismisses TN govt's review plea in Mekedatu case

SUCHITRA KALYAN MOHANTY
@NewDelhi

In a significant development, the Supreme Court dismissed a review petition filed in the Mekedatu case, rejecting the Tamil Nadu government's request that the hearing — seeking a review of the order dated November 13, 2025 — be conducted in an open court rather than in the judges' private chambers. A three-judge bench headed by Chief Justice Surya Kant dismissed the TN government's review petition. "This review petition is dismissed. Consequently, if there are any pending interlocutory applications, they are also deemed to be disposed of," the bench ordered. The TN government had filed a petition in the SC in 2018 with the following prayers: (i) To stay the permission granted on November 22, 2018, by the Central Water Commission to the Karnataka Cauvery Neeravari Nigam Limited to proceed with the preparation of the Detailed Project Report (DPR) for the Mekedatu Balancing Reservoir and Drinking Water Project; (ii) To issue a directive to the Central Water Commission (under the Ministry of Water Resources) to withdraw the letter dated November 22, 2018 — issued to the managing director of the Karnataka Cauvery Neeravari Nigam Ltd — giving permission to prepare the detailed project report for the proposed Mekedatu Balancing Reservoir and Drinking Water Project. The SC dismissed this petition on November 13 last year. The TN government had filed a petition to review this order on December 11, 2025. This review petition was listed for a hearing in the private chambers of CJI Kant and Justices K Vinod Chandran and Vipul M Pancholi on April 15, 2026. On April 13, 2026, Krishnamoorthy, counsel for TN, submitted a plea, requesting that this case be heard in the open courtroom rather than in the judges' chambers. This plea was rejected.

Theatres to run 5 shows in 1st week

CHENNAI: In a new directive, Tamil Nadu Chief Minister C Joseph Vijay has granted permission to theatres for scheduling five shows a day for newly released Tamil films. This directive comes after the CM met with the representatives of the Tamil film industry, on May 16. Under the existing The Tamil Cinema (Regulation) Rules, 1957, a film could have four scheduled shows, with an extra 'special' show scheduled on festive holidays and government holidays. The permission for scheduling shows was previously granted by the District Collector or a Police Inspector for districts outside Chennai. For Chennai, the permission was granted by the Commissioner of Police. ENS

Man hurls petrol bombs at woman's house for rejecting his advances

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Coimbatore

POLICE have launched a search for Karthik alias Mariyappan, along with three of his associates, after a young woman who rejected his romantic overtures allegedly became the target of a petrol bomb attack on her home. Police said the victim had allegedly become acquainted with Karthik while studying at a private college in Coimbatore. However, when she later learned that he was involved in multiple criminal cases, she allegedly ended all contact with him. They added that Karthik allegedly continued to harass the woman over phone calls and even in person. The situation escalated on Sunday evening when Karthik and three others arrived at the woman's residence on two motorcycles.

CCTV footage showed suspects throwing Molotov cocktails at the house | EXPRESS

The accused allegedly abused her father, who was standing outside the house, and issued death threats before hurling petrol-filled liquor bottles into the residence. Thondamuthur police have registered a case against four persons.

Minister Ramesh's father earned only ₹300 initially

"FOR decades, my family has been living a modest life with limited means. We never thought one among us would some day take oath as minister," said Srinivasan

The minister's father said it had been very difficult to make ends meet with his meagre salary. His initial salary was ₹300, he said. It was later raised to ₹1,000, and then to ₹3,000.

"For the past few years, I have been receiving ₹5,000 a month. My wife travels to Mylapore every day for her cooking job to meet the family's needs. With our earnings, we could only manage to make Ramesh complete his BE degree, while our other two sons studied only up to diploma," he added.

Accident victim's organs donated

CHENNAI: The organs of a 24-year-old man, who died of head injuries sustained in a road accident, were donated after getting his family's consent. The Kanyakumari native was referred to Saveetha Hospital on May 22, but was declared brain dead during treatment, a release said. ENS

Stalin slams CM of resorting to horse-trading to remain in power

REJECTING the allegations of horse-trading, Minister for Energy Resources and Law R Nirmalkumar said the AIADMK MLAs resigned their membership since they had lost hope in the leadership of their party. "There is no need for TVK to engage in horse-trading. Even now, if elections are held, TVK will win more than 200 seats," he said.

Earlier in the day, five AIADMK rival group MLAs who supported the TVK government — S M Sukumar (Arcot constituency), NS Natarajan (Kangeyam), P Harihaskar (Kangeyam), K Mohan (Panruti) and D Jaishankar (Sankara-nkoil) — submitted letters to the speaker, apologising to the AIADMK general secretary for backing the TVK government. DMK president MK Stalin accused the CM of resorting to horse-trading to remain in power. He alleged that TVK had sought support from DMK allies, bargained with a section of AIADMK MLAs during the floor test and facilitated their resignation and induction into his party. Stalin also accused the Congress of hypocrisy, saying it had once opposed TVK seeking NDA support but is now part of the cabinet. Responding to Stalin, Congress MP Manickam Tagore accused the DMK of working with the BJP to subvert the people's mandate.

While AMMK general secretary TTV Dhinakaran recalled the earlier instance of alleged horse-trading of his party MLA S Kamaraj by the TVK, VCK treasurer SS Balaji said the move is actually a threat to the TVK president Vijay's claim that they would indulge only in "genuine and honest politics". Responding to the allegations, Minister Aadhav Arjuna said, "When two-thirds of the members of a party (AIADMK) lose faith in their leader and back the TVK, it's not a bargain. They resigned their positions honourably and came to us," he told reporters at the party office in Panaiyur.

Aadhav also took a dig at DMK chief Stalin. "Even today, he (Stalin) blames Instagram and social media for his defeat. He does not understand why he lost, yet keeps spreading false propaganda out of jealousy over TVK's victory," he said. Aadhav also alleged post-poll DMK-AIADMK alliance attempts to make Edappadi K Palaniswami as CM and noted that Stalin has not denied it. He also held Stalin's son Udhayanidhi and son-in-law Sabareesh responsible for the DMK's debacle.

Later in the day, the three MLAs formally joined TVK at its Panaiyur headquarters. Maragatham Kumaravel, one of the three MLAs, said, "After the Assembly elections, the AIAD-MK MLAs proposed two stands: forming the government with the support of the DMK or supporting the TVK government. Most of the MLAs did not like the first proposal, and 30 MLAs supported backing the TVK government. But a malicious propaganda was unleashed against us. During the past five years, as opposition party MLAs, we could not even fulfil 10% of our promises to the people. So, we joined the TVK keeping in mind the welfare of the people of our constituencies." Asked whether they would contest from their present constituencies if by-elections are announced, she said it would be decided by the TVK leadership.
