High command to end power tussle, summons Siddu & DKS

THE Congress high command will most likely put an end to the power tussle between Chief Minister Siddaramaiah and Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar, as both leaders have been summoned to Delhi for a high-voltage meeting scheduled to be held at AICC president Mallikarjun Kharge's residence at 11 am on Tuesday.

Depending on the situation, Leader of Opposition in the Lok Sabha Rahul Gandhi could take part in the meeting, which will be attended by AICC General Secretary (Organisation) KC Venugopal too.

"I cannot comment on this. Rahulji will speak," was Kharge's cryptic reply while talking to a news agency in Delhi on Monday.

Rahul's message for the meeting was conveyed by Venugopal, first to Siddaramaiah on Sunday and Shivakumar on Monday, indicating that a decision on either a change in leadership or cabinet reshuffle would be taken in the presence of both leaders. The much-anticipated meeting will be decisive if Rahul too takes part in it.

The power tussle between the two leaders has been lingering since November 2025, and Shivakumar has been insisting that the high command should take a decision based on the agreement, which was struck between him and Siddaramaiah in 2023 when the party won the Assembly elections, to share power for two-and-a-half years each.

Tuesday's meeting is a clear indication that Shivakumar has got an opportunity to make his strongest-ever bid to stake claim to the chief minister's seat. As Siddaramaiah boarded a special flight to Delhi on Monday evening along with ministers showing allegiance to him, Shivakumar boarded an Air India flight separately along with his personal secretary, giving enough hints that this could be the conclusion of the long-drawn power game. Shivakumar had already sent his younger brother and former Bengaluru Rural MP DK Suresh to Delhi on a separate flight. Suresh is likely to meet certain high command leaders, preparing the ground for Shivakumar to put up a strong fight, sources said. At the meeting, if Shivakumar insists on the CM post, Siddaramaiah could claim that he is supported by a majority of legislators who want him to continue as CM. He may also argue that he would want to continue in the post, keeping the party's future in mind as the party won five bypolls under his leadership.

During the swearing-in of Kerala Chief Minister V D Satheesan, Siddaramaiah had conveyed to Rahul that he has the support of most party seniors, including ministers.

On Tuesday's meeting, a minister told TNIE, "There is nothing special. Siddaramaiah has taken along all his supporters to show his strength."

Woman cuts off ties, man hurls petrol bomb at house

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Coimbatore

POLICE have launched a search for Karthik alias Mariyappan, along with three of his associates, after a young woman who rejected his romantic overtures allegedly became the target of a petrol bomb attack on her home.

Police said the victim had allegedly become acquainted with Karthik while studying at a private college in Coimbatore. However, when she later learned that he was involved in multiple criminal cases, she allegedly ended all contact with him. They added that Karthik allegedly continued to harass the woman over phone calls and even in person. The situation escalated on Sunday evening when Karthik and three others arrived at the woman's residence on two motorcycles. The accused allegedly abused her father, who was standing outside the house, and issued death threats before hurling petrol-filled liquor bottles into the residence. One of the bottles exploded near the portico, setting fire to a shoe rack and other household items. The front wheel of a two-wheeler also caught fire in the incident. Fortunately, no injuries were reported. CCTV footage from the locality showed the suspects purchasing fuel and later throwing Molotov cocktails at the house.

Based on a complaint filed by the victim's father, Thondamuthur police have registered a case against four persons. A special police team has been formed to trace and arrest the accused, who is said to have more than 31 criminal cases pending against him across the state.

Life term for 42-year-old worker in Pocso case

TIRUCHY: A mahila court on Monday sentenced a 42-year-old construction worker to life imprisonment for repeatedly sexually assaulting a 16-year-old girl in Samayapuram in 2023. Judge Shanmugapriya also imposed a fine of ₹15,000 on M Balasubramanian of V Thurayur, who lured the Class 11 girl with a marriage promise, trespassed into her home, and assaulted her when her parents were away. Based on the victim's complaint, Lalgudi All Women Police registered a case under the Pocso Act and IPC on February 23, 2023, and arrested him. Government counsel Sumathi prosecuted the case. ENS

Min's dad earned ₹300 initially

"WE never thought one among us would one day take oath as a minister. After I relocated to this house, I don't have to think about the monthly rent, and the issues associated with it, as accommodation is free of charge," Srinivasan added.

The minister's father said it has been very difficult to make ends meet with his meagre salary. He said his initial salary was ₹300, and it was later raised to ₹1,000, and then to ₹3,000. "For the past few years, I have been receiving ₹5,000. My wife travels to Mylapore every day for her cooking job to meet the family's needs. With our earnings, we could only manage to make Ramesh complete his BE degree, while the other sons studied only up to a diploma," he added.

The minister's elder brother S Sudharshan works as a machine operator at a private company, and younger brother S Aravind also works at a private firm. After completing his education, Ramesh worked at an automobile company while associating himself with the Vijay Makkal Iyakkam.

Flesh trade racket busted: 3 held, search on for one

VIRUDHUNAGAR: Rajapalayam South Police rescued five women who were forced into sex trade during a raid on Saturday. Three persons, were arrested. They conducted a raid at a house in the town and busted the gang. The arrested persons were identified as Anthoni Selvi (29), who allegedly operated the racket, an auto driver Anandraj (38), and Chinna Karuppasamy (38). Search is on to trace another absconding broker. ENS

'CM resorting to horse-trading to stay in power'

Rejecting the allegations of horse-trading, Minister for Energy Resources and Law R Nirmalkumar said the AIADMK MLAs resigned their membership since they lost hope in the leadership of their party and then came to us. "There is no need for TVK to engage in horse-trading. Even now, if elections are held, TVK will win in more than 200 constituencies," he said.

Earlier in the day, five AIADMK rival group MLAs who supported the TVK government — SM Sukumar (Arcot constituency), NS Natarajan (Kangeyam), P Haribhaskar (Kangeyam), K Mohan (Panruti) and D Jaishankar (Sankarankoil) — submitted letters to the speaker, apologising to the AIADMK general secretary for backing the TVK government. Sources said that what Tamil Nadu is witnessing is not merely turmoil inside AIADMK or an expansion bid by TVK, but a high-stakes battle over political relevance in the post-Dravidian transition era. Commenting on the development, DMK president MK Stalin accused the CM of resorting to horse-trading to remain in power. He alleged that TVK had sought support from DMK allies, bargained with a section of AIADMK MLAs during the floor test and facilitated their resignation and induction into his party. Stalin also accused the Congress of hypocrisy, saying it had once opposed TVK seeking NDA support but is now part of the cabinet.

Responding to Stalin, Congress MP Manickam Tagore accused the DMK of working with the BJP to subvert the people's mandate. He also defended the resignation of MLAs and their decision to join TVK. While AMMK general secretary TTV Dhinakaran recalled the earlier instance of alleged horse-trading of his party MLA S Kamaraj by the TVK, VCK treasurer SS Balaji said the move is actually a threat to the TVK president Vijay's claim that they would indulge only in "genuine and honest politics".

A few hours later, the three MLAs formally joined TVK at its Panaiyur headquarters. Later, Maragatham Kumaravel, one of the three AIADMK MLAs, said, "After the Assembly elections, the AIADMK MLAs proposed two stands: forming the government with the support of the DMK or supporting the TVK government. Most of the MLAs did not like the first proposal, and 30 MLAs supported backing the TVK government. But a malicious propaganda was unleashed against us. During the past five years, as opposition party MLAs, we could not even fulfil 10% of our promises to the people. So, we joined the TVK keeping in mind the welfare of the people of our constituencies." She also hailed the welfare initiatives implemented by the Vijay government. Asked whether they would contest from their present constituencies if by-elections are announced, she said it would be decided by the TVK leadership.

Theatres get TN nod for 5 shows for new Tamil films

CHENNAI: In a new directive, Chief Minister C Joseph Vijay has granted permission to theatres for scheduling five shows a day for newly released Tamil films. This directive comes after the CM met with the representatives of the Tamil film industry, on May 16. Under the existing The Tamil Cinema (Regulation) Rules, 1957, a film could have four scheduled shows, with an extra 'special' show scheduled on festive holidays and government holidays. The permission for scheduling shows was previously granted by the District Collector or a Police Inspector for districts outside Chennai. For Chennai, the permission was granted by the Commissioner of Police.With the new directive, a newly released Tamil film can have five scheduled shows a day, for seven days beginning with the day of its release. Apart from that, five shows can be scheduled on weekends, festive holidays and government holidays. ENS
