Sunil Kanugolu may join Revanth's team

WITH the Congress government set to complete half of its five-year term and groupism continuing within the party, Chief Minister A Revanth Reddy has reportedly decided to appoint a key member to his core team to strengthen coordination among ministers, MLAs, MLCs, MPs and party leaders.

According to sources in ministerial circles and among MLAs, political strategist Sunil Kanugolu is likely to be inducted into the chief minister's core team. Sources said preparations are underway for his appointment as public affairs adviser to the chief minister or another key position to act as a bridge between ministers and Congress leaders.

The sources further said that orders regarding his appointment may be issued in the first week of June or after the Rajya Sabha elections for four vacant seats in Karnataka.

The post was earlier held by Vem Narender Reddy, who has since been elected to the Rajya Sabha. Following Narender Reddy's election to the Rajya Sabha, the chief minister is said to have chosen Kanugolu for the advisory role. At present, Kanugolu is serving as an adviser to Karnataka CM Siddaramaiah.

Congress leaders said that during the 2023 Assembly elections, Kanugolu played a key role in bringing the party to power through behind-the-scenes political strategies and social media outreach. He also worked as a political strategist in Karnataka.

Meanwhile, despite the Congress government implementing most of its flagship schemes, the party leadership reportedly feels that it has fallen behind in publicising them. Leaders are also of the view that the party's social media machinery is weaker than that of the BRS and BJP.

Sources said several leaders informed the chief minister about the issue and sought an immediate revamp of the communication and publicity system. Following feedback from various quarters, Revanth is said to have decided to induct Kanugolu into the core team.

Another AIADMK legislator quits post and joins TVK

Edappadi group objects to Assembly Speaker accepting resignations

T MURUGANANDHAM @ Chennai

AMBASAMUDRAM MLA Esakki Subaya, considered a key AIADMK figure in the south, resigned as legislator and joined the ruling TVK on Tuesday, taking the number of rebel MLAs who quit their posts and joined the ruling party in the last two days to four. Speaker JCD Prabhakar accepted his resignation.

The steady stream of resignations has triggered horse-trading allegations from opposition parties DMK and AIADMK while deeply unsettling the ruling alliance. Coalition partners Congress and VCK on Tuesday condemned the developments as "unhealthy politics", and the Left parties, which support the Vijay government from the outside, have also expressed strong dissatisfaction. TVK leader and Revenue Minister KA Sengottaiyan, however, firmly dismissed the accusations.

Responding to the developments, CPI (M) State Secretary P Shanmugam said that though the MLAs had resigned and joined TVK of their own volition, "We are unable to see it as a move without anticipating anything in return." VCK founder Thol Thirumavalavan said, "It is our desire that the TVK leadership doesn't give room to criticism over the issue."

Congress MP Jothimani also lashed out at "horse-trading" in the state and said the party cannot adopt different standards for TN and other states. She said the steps taken by the TVK should be aimed at strengthening democracy and not weakening it, and it will be the Congress party's moral responsibility to air any divergent views in such situations.

With the latest resignation, the total number of vacancies in the 17th Assembly has now risen to five, reducing the House strength to 229 and the simple majority mark to 115 from 118.

Of the remaining 43 AIADMK MLAs, 28 are aligned with party general secretary Edappadi K Palaniswami, and 15 with the rival faction led by CV Shanmugam and S P Velumani.

Legal experts say all 25 MLAs in the Shanmugam faction may face possible disqualification for backing the TVK government in confidence vote.

Ahead of Subaya's meeting with the speaker, AIADMK leaders of the EPS faction led by whip SS Krishnamurthy submitted a representation opposing the acceptance of the three resignations on Monday, calling the move hasty and against Assembly rules, given that disqualification petitions against the same MLAs remained pending.

Former speaker M Appavu also weighed in, posting on X that while the petition seeking disqualification of 25 MLAs under the anti-defection law remained pending before the speaker, there was no need for the speaker to act with such haste on the resignation letters of three of those same MLAs.

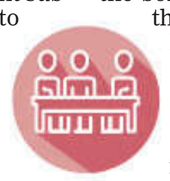
PM backs Satheesan's Kerala pitch

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ T'Puram

IN his first meeting with the prime minister and the Union finance minister after assuming office, Chief Minister V D Satheesan on Tuesday sought the Centre's support in implementing the state's key development projects.

Both Narendra Modi and Nirmala Sitharaman responded positively, Satheesan told reporters after the meetings in New Delhi.

Satheesan said he briefed Modi and Sitharaman on the state's key challenges and priorities. The state will next submit detailed proposals to the respective Union ministries.



The government will also pursue all funds legitimately due from the Centre, he said.

On the issue of open market borrowing, the chief minister said he informed the PM and the FM that Kerala's ceiling stands at 3.5% of GSDP of which 0.5% is tied with power sector reforms.

The liabilities arising from the borrowings by KIIFB and the Kerala Social Security Pension Limited further shrink the state's already limited fiscal space.

Satheesan appealed for additional borrowing space of ₹5,880 crore to offset the borrowing undertaken by the state for land acquisition for National Highway development.
