SHARANABASAVESHWAR Vidya Vardhak Sangha has decided to extend free education to ten meritorious girl students who completed their middle school education in Kasturba Gandhi Residential School and were on the verge of discontinuing their education due to poor economic conditions of their families and other reasons.

President of the Sharanabasaveshwar Vidya Vardhak Sangha Matoshree Dakshayani Avvaji was primarily responsible for providing a new lease of life to these girl students who never scored anything below 90 per cent in their school education in the Kasturba Gandhi Girls Residential School.

Savitha, whose daughter is a student in the Kasturba Gandhi Girls Residential School, was responsible to bring to light the plight of the girl students studying in Kasturba Gandhi Residential School to the eyes of Dr Avvaji in function participated by Avvaji and made a fervent plea to help these unfortunate children. Since the economic condition of the families of these children were very bad the students left with no other alternative but to discontinue their education or join in the government schools, which they did not want to.

Moved by the plight of the students, Dr Avvaji in the presence of 9th Peethadhipati Poojya Doddappa Appa personally interacted with the girl students to understand the economic condition of their respective families and decided on the spot that all the 10 girl students of the Residential School would be provided free of cost education and free hostel facilities under a programme in memory of the 8th Mahadasoha Peethadhipathi of the Samsthan Lingaika Poojya Sharnbaswappa Appaji. According to Avvaji, the Sangha would provide free education along with hostel facilities to the girl children hailing from economically weaker sections every year in memory of Poojya Sharanabasavappa Appaji.

Economic background of all these students had become the criteria for getting admission in the Kasturba Gandhi Residential School. Parents of all these students were either agricultural labourers, or working as menial labourers in Hotels or driving auto rickshaws in towns and cities in the district. Few of the students were children of widowed mothers who work as domestic helps to make a living.

All the 10 students have been admitted in the Mahadevi Girls High School in the 9th Standard and admitted in the hostel exclusively for the girls in the Appa Public School campus. Besides providing uniform, notes and subject books free of cost, arrangements for picking and dropping of the girls in the hostel and girls is also made, according to the headmistress of the school, Jyoti Mallapur said that these students have continued their academic spirit in the same vain scoring 90 per cent in all the tests and examinations in their new school.

Forum to host meeting over amendment to Article 371 (J)

HYDERABAD Karnataka Horata Samithi would be convening an interactive meeting with like-minded organisations with regard to effective implementation of Amendment to Article 371 J, on Wednesday at 11 am on the premises of KKCCI, said office-bearers of the Horata Samithi here on Monday.

Speaking in a press conference here, president of Kalyana Karnataka Chamber of Commerce and Industries Sharanabasappa Pappa, who is also the office-bearer of the Samithi, said that Amendment to Article 371 J is the brainchild of former minister late Vajijnath Patil. Though an amendment has been made to Article 371 J more than a decade back, it has not been effectively implemented. Kalyana Karnataka Chamber of Commerce was a strong partner which joined agitation for the amendment to Article 371 J, he recalled and said that KKCCI would wholeheartedly support the decisions taken in the proposed interactive meeting to be held on Wednesday, Pappa assured.

Senior journalist Gangadhar Kustagi who was a strong follower of Vajijnath Patil and was the part of agitation launched by Vajijnath Patil said that the responsibility of implementing amendment to Article 371 J should be entrusted to the Governor of Karnataka and it was the wish of the constitution amendment. He called upon the organisations to organise Lok Bhavan Chalo to put pressure on the Governor to take up the responsibility of effective implementation of the constitutional amendment. Another leader Arunkumar Patil Kudalahangaraga said that though the government is releasing sufficient grants for the development of Kalyana Karnataka Region, the position of Kalyana Karnataka has not changed and till date it is backward compared to other regions of the State. Horata Samithi president Chandrashekhhar Harsoor and youth leader Goutam Vajijnath Patil also spoke.
