‘We didn’t bend the knee’ to US: Iran

Pezeshkian accuses US of terrorism, says Iran ready for talks but rejects ‘language of force’

UNITED NATIONS

IRAN’s president said on Wednesday that his people have been “victims of terrorism” by the United States, delivering a rare wartime speech at UN General Assembly a day after President Donald Trump said he could “annihilate” the Islamic republic. In a defiant speech, President Masoud Pezeshkian held up large photos of the late Supreme Leader Ali Khamenei and the more than 150 school Iranian children killed on the first days of the war.

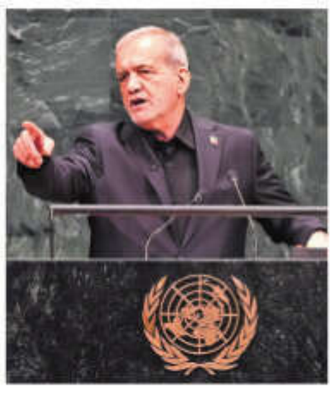

WAR WATCH

“We have only defended ourselves. We are not terrorists,” Pezeshkian said at the General Assembly. “Our innocent people have been the targets of cowardly attacks and aggressions imposed upon our country. And we defended ourselves with utmost strength. America and Israel attacked us.”

He added of the United States: “Yes they did hit us, but we did not bend the knee.” Toward the end of his speech, Pezeshkian called out Trump by name. “It must be understood by Mr Trump and those who seek to bully us that we are ready for dialogue and diplomacy and negotiations without accepting the language of force,” he said.

He also said one thing that was measurably false: “We did not hit civilian populations.” Mariners and migrant workers in the region have been among the civilians killed in Iran’s attacks since the war began.

Arriving in New York under heavy security and scrutiny, Pezeshkian — who, within Iran’s political landscape, is considered a moderate politician — addressed world leaders a day after Trump used the same stage to suggest he may “annihilate” the Islamic Republic if a deal isn’t reached soon to end the nearly seven-month war. Hours later, Trump told reporters that his chief envoys, Steve Witkoff and Jared Kushner, met for about three hours with the Iranian officials on the sidelines of the annual gathering. But he offered few details about how the discussions transpired or the substance of the exchange.

“It was a very good meeting,” Trump said. The president later added that the Iranian officials were “not the highest level, but it’s something.” Also on Tuesday, Secretary of State Marco Rubio said Trump is open to meeting with Pezeshkian while he’s in New York.

But Tehran downplayed Tuesday’s unscheduled exchange, which were the first indirect talks between U.S. and Iranian officials since a June ceasefire unraveled. Esmail Baghaei, an Iranian Foreign Ministry spokesperson, maintained the country’s negotiating position in talks with US officials, demanding that Washington end its blockade of Iranian ports and release frozen Iranian assets, Baghaei said the talks — conducted indirectly through Qatari mediators — were “not anything new.” AP

Another vessel hit in Strait of Hormuz

LONDON: A vessel was struck by an “unknown projectile” while transiting the Strait of Hormuz on Wednesday, the UK Maritime Trade Operations said. The attack sparked a fire and forced the crew to evacuate. The incident highlighted continued risks to shipping, with commercial traffic through the key waterway remaining well below prewar levels.

Houthis say Saudi strikes kill 10 in Yemen

DUBAI: Houthi-affiliated Al-Masirah TV said Saudi airstrikes killed 10 people and wounded 14 in Yemen’s Taiz and Al-Jawf governorates over 24 hours. The strikes come as Houthis seek control of the Red Sea coast and Bab al-Mandab strait. Fighting has intensified since a four-year truce collapsed in July, killing hundreds and displacing tens of thousands.

Iran helped Houthis in Yemen coast offensive

CAIRO: Houthi rebels seized Yemen’s Red Sea coast in less than 48 hours, with Iranian Revolutionary Guard advisers helping direct the offensive, officials told AP. The 115-km advance exploited divisions among pro-government forces, forcing them to retreat from Mokha. The capture strengthens the Houthis’ ability to threaten Saudi oil shipments and gives Iran greater regional leverage.

Russia pounds Kyiv as Zelenskyy attends UN

KYIV

RUSSIA hammered Kyiv with drones in daylight attacks on Wednesday as Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy prepared for meetings with world leaders at the UN General Assembly.

Two people were killed and 41 wounded in Ukraine’s capital as the attack stretched into Wednesday afternoon. Palls of black smoke floated above the city following the latest in what have been daily Russian attacks that torment Ukrainian civilians. The drones set off fires and damaged buildings in Kyiv and elsewhere in Ukraine overnight, authorities said.

Zelenskyy was in New York for the annual UN gathering as part of his diplomatic effort to shore up and recruit further international support for his country’s grueling 4½-year fight against Russia’s invasion. He was due to address the General Assembly later Wednesday and was also to meet with European leaders and NATO Secretary-General Mark Rutte.

Zelenskyy met on Tuesday with Donald Trump, who has shown impatience with the lack of progress in talks aimed at ending the war and the escalating aerial attacks by both sides this year.

Kremlin spokesman Dmitry Peskov said Wednesday that there are “no concrete plans” for a high-level meeting between US and Russian officials that might help break the deadlock in negotiations. He insisted that Moscow is “open to peace talks.” Russian President Vladimir Putin accused of sabotage, espionage by NATO and Europe, skips UN meet. AP

Taiwan hopes US arms sales is on despite Xi’s trip

TAINAN

AS China’s Xi Jinping arrives in Washington to meet with Donald Trump, Taiwan expressed confidence that US arms sales to the island that Beijing claims as its own will continue — despite China’s pressure.

China has pressed Washington to halt the arms sales, most prominently during a summit in May between Trump and Xi in Beijing. After that meeting, the United States paused the sale of a record-breaking $14 billion package — and Trump described arms sales to Taiwan as a “very good negotiating chip” with China.

Still, the US government and Congress have “repeatedly expressed support for Taiwan’s self-defense capabilities,” Taiwanese Defense Ministry spokesperson Major General Chiao Fu-chun told reporters in the southern city of Tainan. “We will continue to maintain close contact with the US Department of War and continue to push forward the arms procurement deal between Taiwan and the US, ensuring it proceeds as planned,” he added. The US is bound by its own laws to provide Taiwan — a self-ruled democracy that China sees as its own territory — with the means to defend itself. While not recognising Taiwan as a country, the US is the island’s strongest informal backer and arms provider.

> We will continue to maintain close contact with the US Department of War and continue to push forward the arms procurement deal between Taiwan and the US, ensuring it proceeds as planned
> Taiwanese Defense Ministry spokesperson Major General Chiao Fu-chun

Washington approved another $11 billion package for Taiwan in December. Hours before Xi’s arrival for the three-day state visit to the US, Taiwan’s military on Wednesday conducted live fire drills featuring a domestically developed eight-wheeled armored vehicle, highlighting efforts to strengthen its own arms production.

Called The Cheetah, the vehicle can be fitted with a 105-millimeter cannon and can reach a maximum speed of about 100 kph and an operational range of about 500 kilometers. Taiwanese Major General Chen Chien-chung said the vehicle can be used on various terrains and is suitable for urban warfare. AP
