Trump claims Hormuz as US territory, rules out Iran talks

Iran says Strait of Hormuz remains closed until US meets its demands

WASHINGTON

US President Donald Trump on Tuesday posted a map on his Truth Social platform showing the Strait of Hormuz as "New US Territory," pressing his threat to claim sovereignty over the vital waterway.

Trump said Tuesday that no talks with Tehran are under way or planned and insisted the blockade of Iran's ports remains in force. "There are no talks or conversations going on, or scheduled, with the Islamic Republic of Iran. The Naval Blockade remains in full force and effect," Trump wrote on his Truth Social network.

"The Hormuz Strait is open and operating. All water mines have been removed or detonated." Iran has effectively shut down the chokepoint, through which a fifth of the world's oil transits, in retaliation for the war Trump started along with Israel in late February.

Trump first raised the idea of a US takeover on Friday, saying in a jovial-sounding tone he would soon declare it to be US territory — prompting Iran to retort that the strait "will remain Iranian." Trump revisited the idea again on Monday in comments to reporters in the Oval Office, suggesting it would be a good idea.

Trump has previously threatened to annex Canada, seize Greenland and take control of Gaza. Before the February 28 war, Hormuz was an open international waterway.

Iran holds firm

Iran's top negotiator Mohammad Bagher Ghalibaf said on Tuesday that the Strait of Hormuz will not be opened until the United States meets Tehran's demands, including lifting the naval blockade.

"I want to state clearly that the Strait of Hormuz will not be opened until the American commitments stipulated in the memorandum of understanding... are implemented," Ghalibaf said in a speech broadcast on state television.

He listed the removal of the blockade, lifting oil sanctions and unfreezing Iran's assets abroad among the demands, which were included in an Iran-US truce in June that later collapsed. Iran and Oman have for weeks been discussing the future of navigation through the strait, with Tehran saying the geographical coordinates of a route envisaged by both countries "have been agreed upon". On Monday, Iran said talks were "continuing in a serious manner" AFP

HRW says UN must keep peacekeepers in Lebanon

BEIRUT: Human Rights Watch urged the UN to maintain an international force in Lebanon after UNIFIL's mandate expires on December 31, 2026. HRW warned that withdrawing peacekeepers without a replacement could leave civilians vulnerable to attacks and abuses. UN chief Antonio Guterres and Lebanon's President Joseph Aoun have backed keeping peacekeepers or deploying an alternative force.

UK prime minister rejects Russian threat, vows 100% support for Ukraine

LONDON

PRIME Minister Andy Burnham on Tuesday hit back with a defiant commitment to continue supporting Ukraine after Russia threatened "consequences" over the use of British drones by Kyiv for strikes on Moscow. The Russian Embassy in London said in a statement posted on its social media channels on Monday that the UK was acting as an "accomplice and co-perpetrator" in a conflict it has classified as "terrorist attacks" by Ukraine.

Burnham reiterated the UK's "100 per cent" support for Ukraine to be able to defend itself in the face of Russian President Vladimir Putin's aggression. "This is the UK doing what it has long said it would do, which is to support Ukraine 100 per cent against this illegal war led by Vladimir Putin," said Burnham, when asked to respond to the Russian Embassy statement.

"We are providing support so that Ukraine can defend itself, and that's been the British position all the way through this conflict by previous prime ministers. It remains the case with me. We are not fair-weather friends. We will be there in Ukraine's hour of need, and that won't change," he said.

The Sunday Times reported over the weekend that drones made by two UK companies have been supplied to Ukraine, where forces deployed them as part of a so-called "deep-strike campaign".

Ukraine fires 800 drones

Ukrainian forces launched one of their biggest drone attacks on Russia since Moscow's invasion over four years ago, firing almost 800 drones only two days after a similar salvo, officials said Tuesday. Meanwhile, a Russian missile strike on a village in northeastern Ukraine's Kharkiv region killed at least 10 people and wounded 17 others, officials said. PTI/AP

Putin hosts Myanmar leader to deepen ties

MOSCOW: Vladimir Putin hosted Myanmar's military-backed leader Min Aung Hlaing on Tuesday to strengthen bilateral cooperation. Putin highlighted joint work on security and economic projects, including plans for a Russian-built nuclear power plant and other facilities. Russia has backed Myanmar's military government since its 2021 coup and remains a major arms supplier.

Trump praises India's election system, pushes US voter ID law

WASHINGTON

MAKING a strong case for stricter electoral laws in the US, Donald Trump praised the Indian election system and recalled Chief Election Commissioner Gyanesh Kumar questioning the lack of voter identification in American polls. In a post on Truth Social on Monday, Trump said over 646 million people participated in the recent general elections in India, and yet less than one per cent voted through postal ballots.

Trump said India's chief election commissioner had spoken with officials from his administration earlier this month, and asked how US elections can be held without a valid photo identification card.

The US president made these remarks to drum up support for the Save America Act, which would require Americans to show proof of citizenship to register to vote, impose a nationwide voter identification requirement and severely limit voting by mail.

"Earlier this month, India's Chief Election Commissioner, Gyanesh Kumar, asked our Administration - How can you have Elections in the US without a valid Photo ID?" Trump wrote. PTI

Student livestreams attack; kills schoolmate, self

MANILA: A Grade 9 student carrying two pistols shot dead a fellow student before killing himself at a high school in the southern Philippine city of Zamboanga, police said. The attack was livestreamed using a body-worn camera. Two others were injured and hundreds evacuated from the Ateneo de Zamboanga university campus. Police identified the suspect as Mohammad Mael Jalani. One pistol reportedly belonged to his father, a government police commander. It was the country's second fatal school shooting in two months, prompting classes to be suspended at the university.
