TRUMP CLAIMS HORMUZ AS US TERRITORY

Iran says Strait of Hormuz remains closed until United States meets its demands

WASHINGTON

US President Donald Trump on Tuesday posted a map on his Truth Social platform showing the Strait of Hormuz as "New US Territory," pressing his threat to claim sovereignty over the vital waterway.

Trump said Tuesday that no talks with Tehran are under way or planned and insisted the blockade of Iran's ports remains in force. "There are no talks or conversations going on, or scheduled, with the Islamic Republic of Iran. The Naval Blockade remains in full force and effect," Trump wrote on his Truth Social network.

"The Hormuz Strait is open and operating. All water mines have been removed or detonated." Iran has effectively shut down the chokepoint, through which a fifth of the world's oil transits, in retaliation for the war Trump started along with Israel in late February.

Trump first raised the idea of a US takeover on Friday, saying in a jovial-sounding tone he would soon declare it to be US territory — prompting Iran to retort that the strait "will remain Iranian." Trump revisited the idea again on Monday in comments to reporters in the Oval Office, suggesting it would be a good idea.

WAR WATCH

Trump has previously threatened to annex Canada, seize Greenland and take control of Gaza. Before the February 28 war, Hormuz was an open international waterway.

Iran holds firm

Iran's top negotiator Mohammad Bagher Ghalibaf said on Tuesday that the Strait of Hormuz will not be opened until the United States meets Tehran's demands, including lifting the naval blockade.

"I want to state clearly that the Strait of Hormuz will not be opened until the American commitments stipulated in the memorandum of understanding... are implemented," Ghalibaf said in a speech broadcast on state television.

He listed the removal of the blockade, lifting oil sanctions and unfreezing Iran's assets abroad among the demands, which were included in an Iran-US truce in June that later collapsed. Iran and Oman have for weeks been discussing the future of navigation through the strait, with Tehran saying the geographical coordinates of a route envisaged by both countries "have been agreed upon". AFP

Qatar says Hormuz deal may revive talks

DOHA: Qatar said an Iran-Oman agreement on the Strait of Hormuz could help resume stalled US-Iran negotiations. Iran effectively shut the strategic waterway after war broke out with the US. Tehran says it will not reopen the strait until Washington meets its demands, including lifting a naval blockade and unfreezing Iranian assets. Qatar said an agreement would make it easier to return to negotiations.

UN must retain Lebanon peacekeepers

BEIRUT: Human Rights Watch urged the UN to maintain an international force in Lebanon after UNIFIL's mandate expires on December 31, 2026. HRW warned that withdrawing peacekeepers without a replacement could leave civilians vulnerable to attacks and abuses. UN chief Antonio Guterres and Lebanon's President Joseph Aoun have backed keeping peacekeepers or deploying an alternative force.
