POST OF THE DAY

V D Satheesan (@vdsatheesan)

Looking forward to inaugurating the 72nd Nehru Trophy Boat Race, a celebration that embodies Keralam's spirit, unity and timeless connection with its backwaters. As we gather on the waters of Punnamada, we also remember the enduring legacy of Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru Ji, whose historic visit and affection for this great tradition gave the Nehru Trophy its name and a special place in our history.

108-feet Mahapithru Moksham pillar planned at Thiruvilwamala

M K SAJEEVKUMAR @Thrissur

A 108-feet-tall memorial dedicated to the departed souls and invoking salvation for the ancestors is being planned at Thiruvilwamala in Thrissur district, where the historic Ivarmadam Mahashmashana is located.

Named Mahapithru Moksham Sthambham, meaning The Great Salvation of the Ancestors, the proposed monument will be 108 feet high and 40 feet wide and is envisaged to be covered with one lakh clay head-shaped ritual forms (shira pindas). The striking feature of the monument will be a vast composition of faces representing different human tribes and communities, from early humans onwards, according to the project proponents.

The memorial has been conceived by noted sculptor P V Ramachandran, whose prominent works include the 51-feet Maraprabhu sculpture at the Sreevalsam Guest House complex of the Guruvayur Devaswom. "108 feet is a highly significant Vastu dimension. The number 108 has significance not only in Vastu but also in other sciences," Ramachandran said.

The monument is conceived as a representation of Ivarmadam's spiritual and cultural heritage, while bringing together remembrance of ancestors, the transience of human life and concepts surrounding the afterlife. It is also intended as a memorial to the departed souls and as a space for prayers for their salvation, the sculptor said.

Project chairman Ramesh Korappath said that efforts were under way to identify suitable land at Thiruvilwamala, a cultural and spiritual centre on the banks of the Bharathapuzha, with the aim of completing the monument within three years and dedicating it to the nation.

The organisers hope that the monument will help place Thiruvilwamala prominently on the global pilgrimage map. Once the monument is completed, the organisers also plan to install a smaller version at a United Nations museum

Two houses burgled in Thrissur, 53 sovereigns of gold stolen

Many theft attempts in Nhamanengad area over last month raise concerns among residents

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Thrissur

TWO houses were burgled at Peramangalam and Anjoor in the last two days, with over 53 sovereigns of gold and cash stolen from the houses. Several theft attempts were also reported in the Nhamanengad area in the district over the last month, causing concerns among residents.

Police's preliminary assessment is that around 47 sovereigns of gold were stolen from the house of Shakir, a Parappur native and textile shop owner, within the Peramangalam police station limits. The jewellery had reportedly been purchased for his daughter's wedding, scheduled for October. The thieves entered the house after breaking open the rear door. Shakir and his family returned home from their shop around 1.45 am on Friday and found the door damaged.

Jewellery kept for daughter's wedding

Around 47 sovereigns of gold were stolen from the house of Shakir, a Parappur native and textile shop owner. The jewellery had been purchased for his daughter's wedding, scheduled for October

A paddy field lies behind the house, with a railway track beyond it. A liquor bottle and food remains were also found near the house, raising suspicion that the burglars may have spent some time in the vicinity. Money kept in another room was not stolen. Police have launched an investigation.

In another incident at Anjoor, burglars broke into the house of Kanjangad Gangadharan on Chakkithara Road while the family was away at a hospital. Around six sovereigns of gold ornaments and Rs 2,600 in cash were stolen after the almirah was broken open. The stolen jewellery included a five-sovereign gold chain and a one-sovereign ring.

The family lodged a complaint with the Vadakkekkad police soon after discovering the theft after returning home. Police suspect that the burglars may have known that the occupants were at the hospital and targeted the house when it was vacant. The investigation to identify the accused is under way.

Meanwhile, several theft attempts have been reported in different parts of Nhamanengad over the last month. Attempts were reportedly made at a jewellery shop at Nayarangadi Palathinkal and a house at Nhamanengad Centre. The repeated incidents have caused concerns among local residents, who have demanded that night-time police patrolling and surveillance be intensified in the area.

100-day programme: KSDC launches welfare schemes

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Thrissur

The Kerala State Development Corporation for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (KSDC) has launched a series of schemes aimed at the comprehensive social and economic development of Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribe communities as part of the state government's 100-day action programme.

Minister for Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and Backward Classes Welfare K A Thulasi formally announced the schemes and inaugurated a loan distribution programme for beneficiaries at the K Karunakaran Memorial Town Hall here.

The minister said the government had succeeded in implementing all pending schemes for the Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribe communities. She also stressed the need to ensure that sanitation workers, who are among the most vulnerable sections of society, have access to loans at low interest rates. A new loan scheme for sanitation workers, including members of Haritha Karma Sena, and their dependants was launched with the assistance of the National Safai Karmachari Finance and Development Corporation.

Minister K A Thulasi inaugurates the official announcement of various schemes and loan distribution programme of the Kerala State Development Corporation for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes

The minister also announced plans to conduct regional adalats to settle outstanding loans and open three new sub-offices and two micro-offices to expand the corporation's service network.

The 'Indira Jyothi' scheme, under which solar streetlights will be installed in Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribe colonies, was also formally announced. The new initiatives are aimed at providing more effective financial assistance to socially and economically disadvantaged communities.

The minister distributed loans of Rs 29.90 lakh to members of Thalikulam CDS, Rs 45.50 lakh to members of Muriad CDS and Rs 56.70 lakh to members of Guruvayur CDS. Various loans totalling Rs 5.60 crore were also sanctioned for beneficiaries in Thrissur and Palakkad districts.

Minister Thulasi also inaugurated the SBI e-Van Boys'd Repayment System, implemented in association with the State Bank of India. The digital loan repayment system is intended to enable beneficiaries to repay loans quickly from anywhere, replacing the existing practice of visiting corporation offices to make repayments.

A new brochure detailing the corporation's various loan schemes was also released at the function.

MLA Rajan J Pallan, KSDC managing director V P Subramanian, NSTFDC Hyderabad zonal manager Dr Krishnaveni, Thrissur District Scheduled Caste development officer K Sandhya, Thrissur District Scheduled Tribe development officer R Sindhu, KSDC Thrissur corporate office manager E&R Shaji T V, project manager Rinu Jose and Thrissur district manager T P Vidya spoke at the function.

Residents seek measures to end wild elephant menace in Pananchery

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Thrissur

A memorandum has been submitted to the Thrissur District Forest Officer seeking the preparation and submission of a new project to the government for installing scientific wildlife mitigation measures, including hanging fences and trenches, to find a permanent solution to the intensifying elephant menace in the hilly areas of Pananchery grama panchayat.

The memorandum was submitted to Thrissur District Forest Officer K J Martin Lovel by a delegation led by DCC general secretary K C Abhilash and Kisan Congress mandalam president K M Paulose. The affected areas include Vaniyampara, Vazhukkumpara, Thonikkal, Uravumpadam, Mayilattumpara, Peechi and Thekkekulam. The memorandum pointed out that the frequent intrusion of wild elephants into residential areas and farmlands poses a serious threat to the lives and property of local residents and farmers. Crops including banana, coconut, areca nut and rubber are being extensively damaged, causing heavy financial losses to farmers. In several areas, the threat has become so severe that people are unable to step outside their homes at night, it said.

Major demands

- Stronger forest surveillance and night patrolling until the new mitigation measures are put in place
- A comprehensive new project incorporating hanging fences, trenches, solar fencing and other suitable wildlife mitigation measures
- Farmers who suffer crop losses due to elephant raids be provided eligible compensation

The delegation demanded an immediate inspection of Vazhukkumpara, Thonikkal, Uravumpadam, Mayilattumpara, Peechi and Thekkekulam and a scientific study of elephant movement routes in these areas. Abhilash also demanded that the project and estimate be submitted to the Kerala government for approval and allocation of the required funds. He called for urgent intervention to ensure the safety of people and farmers in the hilly region. He said Thrissur DFO had assured the delegation that he would visit the affected areas in the coming days, assess the situation.
